Contention Is Made to the Stewards That the Son of Meddler Is Not a Gelding Owner Shields Taken by Surprise -Jockey Hildebrand in Disfavor.

The stewards of the Sheepshead Bay meeting are considering a protest filed with them against the recent victory of Go Between made vesterday by F. R. Hitchcock, owner of Dandellon, who ran second, setting forth that it was the general belief that Go Between vas not a gelding, as he had been carded in all of his races. Mr. Hitchcock's ples was that if it could be shown that the son of Meddier-Indigo had been impersectly gelded he should not be entitled to the $17,000, the winner's share of the big handicap. Alex Shields, owner of Go Between, was served with a copy of the protest and seemed much surprised at its contents. He said:

"I purchased Go Between out of a selling race on this track for $7,000, fully believing that he was a gelding, and I have no reason to believe he is otherwise. In weight for age races a gelding is entitled to a three pound Sovance, but in handicaps, such as the Subhim by Mr. Vosburgh. In the Suburban Go Between packed the impost given to him and won fairly and equarely. I cannot account for Mr. Hitchcock's protest and do not believe it will stand. Should the Suburban be taken away from Go Between, I would be inclined to hold the Coney Island Jockey Club responsible, as I bought Go Between out of a stake run under the club's sanction

It was said that a veterinary had been sent to the barn to make an examination of the Suburban winner. Several horsemen who were familiar with the Hitchcock protest said that Go Between was really a ridgeling, in that he had been imperfectly gelded and really came under the head of the stallion class. In England such horses are not entitled to a gelding allowance, though they cannot serve in the stud. It is thought the protest will be overruled by the stewards.

As Shields could not be held responsible for an error of this kind and as he has run Go Between in perfect good faith ever since he got him, turfmen say that it hardly would be fair to deprive the Canadian of his prize on much a technicality at so late a date

It is understood that Eugene Hildebrand, the jockey who is under contract to the Whit ney stable, has been practically set down by Trainer Rogers. There was a story in cir-culation at the track yesterday to the effect that Mr. Whitney asked Rogers why Hilde-brand was not permitted to ride. Rogers replied, so the story goes, that the boy had not been taking proper care of himself and that he had been sent to Buffalo to get himself in proper condition by accepting mounts there. Hildebrand is now anxious to ride on the local tracks, it is said, and declares that be is fit, but Rogers has made up his mind that the jockey cannot wear the light blue Jacket and brown cap until the Saratoga meeting at the earliest.

It will not be at all surprising, under the circumstances, if Hildebrand asks for his release from the Whitney stable. He is receiving his salary regularly, but he wants show metropolitan patrons that he is not a back number.

The Coney Island Jockey Club is enjoying greater prosperity just now than ever before, but, unlike the policy of P. J. Dwyer and the Brooklyn Jockey Club, there seems to be no inclination to help out the poor owners with extra races. At Gravesend Mr. Dwyer put on seven races in one day a number of times to accommodate owners that had been excluded from the regularly scheduled over-night events. There were forty-five entries for the fifth race to be run at the Bay this afternoor, but as there is track room for only twenty-three starters, twenty-two of these entries were excluded, the management declining to put on an extra race for their accommodation.

The United States sailor who has been playing the races steadily for the last three veeks caused a sensation in the ring yes-He began with a $500 bet on Monfort and then bet $1,000 on Glorifler. He had $2,500 on Ethon, and then, being more than $10,000 winner, he tried to put the whole lump on Perverse, but could not get it down. After that he went from book to book betting on Toots Mook in the fifth $500 at a clip. He los all of $5,000 on the mare and then dropped his other winnings on Glenecho. It is said that the jack tar is well ahead, possesses a fat bank roll and is playing the horses con-

The local poolrooms for the first time since the Jockey ( lub began war against them by cutting off information at the track were able description of each race from start to finish The rooms have an agent stationed in a hous near the backstretch, who, with the aid of powerful telescope, can make out the wigwar signals of a confederate who does business from the top of the grand stand. The Pin kertons are exercising the usual vigilance and the information is held back from the pub-lic as late as usual, but the rooms have been perfecting their service until they expect t have everything when the scene shifts t Brighton Bèach.

There was a wide difference of opinion to the probable winner of the first race. While the bulk of the money was placed on Frank Lorl and Monford, there was also plenty of backing for Riffe nan, Clements, Donna Elvira, Curriculum and Miss Strome. The

There was a heavy plunge on Paul Rainey's Heaslip in the second race. Thousands were dumped into the ring, the odds dropping from 6 to 5 to 9 to 10. Heasilp looked like a sure thing, but Radtke tossed the race away beyond a doubt. Jimmy McCormick had a good bet on Glorifier, despite a belief to the contrary. H. P. Whitney's Old Faithful, backed down to 7 in this race, was shut off at the head of the stretch.

in the third event. At the last moment this colt was backed off the boards, a heavy commission being sent to the ring from the clubhouse. Dave Gideon, Bennington, Burlew and others bet on Royal Breeze, who was recently sold to P. J. Dwyer. The Western crowd went to Montgomery, a colt by Pessara -Montgomery Cooper.

Lotowanna, who burned up a bundle smart bets in the Mermaid Stakes, pulled up very lame. Previous winners of were Glidelia, Thora, Hiawasse, Miss Wood-ford, Duchess, Wanda, Bandala, Firenze, B., She, Her Highness, Equity, Yorkville Belle. Afternoon, Beldemere, Gunfire, Daisy Green, Beldame and Tradition. Perverse hung up a new record for the stakes

In spite of a strong paddock tip, Ironsides went up to 10 to 1 at the close offthe speculation on the fifth race. Many of the handicappers bet on H. B. Duryea's Ben Ban, who receive eighteen pounds from Ironsides and twenty-six from First Premium, the top weight. With a tronger ride Ben Ban might have won.

With a trongerride Ben Ban might have won.

Gen Echo seemed to be on the verge of a breakdown after the last race. The stable connections did not bet on Angler to win, but the colt was well supported at the last minute, place and show. A ton of money was lost on Lancastrian, backed from 4 down to 13 to 5, while Lelia, who was prepared for a filling and was backed accordingly, falled to connect. By the way, why are horses entered in races over the turf course not permitted to warm up on the grass?

It is said that Whimsical has gone lame.

LAWN TENNIS.

Ex-Champion Larned on His Mettle and

Beats Pennsylvania Player. The ceeding out process of the first two The reeding out process of the first two days of the Middle States lawn tennis championship brought the upper class players into the competitions of the singles yesterday afternoon on the turf courts of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, at Mountain Station, N. J. Ex-Champion William A. Larfied, Frederick C. Coiston, the Maryland expert, and Dr. Augustus B. Wadsworth came through in straight sets. Larned was on his mettle against the University of Pennsylvania player, H. B. Register. He appeared able to drop the ball acquirately in any part of Register's court. Larned won, 6-1, 6-0.

Perverse Takes the Mermald Stakes in a Gallop.

H. P. Whitney's popular colors were carried HARVARD AND YALE MEN SEEK to victory at Sheopshead Bay yesterday by the three-year-old Perverse and Ironsides. It was in the Mermaid Stakes, for three-yearold fillies, that Perverse, a prohibitve favorite won practically as she pleased, running the mile and a furlong in 1:54. Lyne took her up at the outset and allowed Sahara, 20 to 1 a Keene castoff, to set the pace for nearly a mile. Then Perverse went to the front and it was all over, Sahara being beaten by two lengths. The Albemarie Stable's Lotowanna, played down to 7 to 2, was (wo and a half engths away. ironsides, 7 to 1, got a neat ride from Lyne in the handicap for three-year-olds, six fur-longs, and closing in the stretch he got through on the rail and won in a drive by half a lengt from H. B. Durvea's Ben Ban, 8 to 1, who had Jennings's Confederate, 5 to 1, nosed Battle axe, 8 to 1, out of third money. The two public choices, Toots Mook and First Prenium, were anchored by the weight. time was 1:14.

R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Monfort, 4 to 1, after long struggle with T. D. Sullivan's Frank Lord, 7 to 2 favorite, drew away in the last sixteenth and won the firstrace, for two-yearolds, five and a half furlongs, by a length in 1:07. A claim of foul was lodged against the winner, but it was not allowed. Black Mate, a 20 to 1 shot, was third.

Overconfidence on the part of Radtke was wholly responsible for the defeat of Paul Rainey's Heaslip, 9 to 10 favorite, in the Rainey's Heaslip, 9 to 10 favorite, in the second race, at a mile. Heaslip had a commanding lead when he reached the homestretch, whereupon Radtke went to sieep. He did not wake up until Glorifler, 9 to 2, came up with a rush and stole the lead, which amounted to half a length at the wire. Single Shot, 12 to 1, heat Wrenne, a 40 to 1 shot, a nose for third money. The race was run in 1.39 4-5.

amounted to half a length at the wire. Single Shot, 12 to 1, beat Wrenne, a 40 to 1 shot, a nose for third money. The race was run in 1:39 4-5.

Lyne handled his third winner of the day when he came home with G. C. Bennett's Erhon, 7 to 5 favorite, in the third event, for two-year olds, five and a half furlongs. He moved up at the head and the son of Intrusive passed the judges a length and a half before August Belmont's Misgivings, 12 to 1. Belcast, at the false price of 15 to 1, was a poor third. Hoyal Breeze, well played at 3, was shut off early. The time was 1:06 4-5.

J. D. Odom's Angler, neglected at 15 to 1, took the handleap at a mile and a nalf on turf in a gallop. He covered the route in 2:33 2-5, equalling the track record. Glenecho, 11 to 5 favorite, led for more than a mile and then began to tire. He was second, a head in front of Huntington, 25 to 1. Four favorites lost. The summaries:

Princeton Theological Student to Wear

N. Y. A. C. Colors in England. Among the passengers who sailed on the Tuetonic yesterday was J. P. Hagerman, a theological student of Princeton University, who will represent the New York A. C. in the English athletic championships on July 7. He will try for the broad jump and 120 yard he will try lot the oracl jump and 1.0 yard hurdles. Hagerman had as a companion R. W. Wadsley, a former English champion. As a mate in the jumps Hagerman will have L. T. Sheffield of Yale, who will also wear the colors of the New York A. C.

William W. Swan, for many years an enthusiastic follower of amateur athletics, died yesterday at his home in this city. Billy Swan, as he was familiarly known, belonged to sixteen different clubs, but was best known for his connection with the old Manhattan A. C., about a decade ago. He was vice president for several years and was one of the president for several years and was one of the prime movers in the scheme for constructing the clubhouse at Forty-fifth street and Madison avenue. When the old Manhattan A. C. disbanded Swan became a member of the New York A. C.

Jack MacMasters Leaves Harvard. CAMBRIDGE, June 27.- Harvard has dis-missed her veteran athletic trainer, John MacMasters, who has looked after the con-dition of her football and baseball .eams for dition of her football and baseball came for eight years and her hockey teams for three years. The football men became dissatisfied with MacMasters last fall and it was through their influence that the trainer was dismissed by the athletic committee. Just who they will look for to take care of the football team next fall has not yet been docided, but it will prohably be John Bowler of Dartmouth or Thomas F. Keane of Oberlin.

WIMBLEDON, June 27 .- In the fourth round of the gentlemen's singles in the lawn tennis championship fifteen competitors still rebeat Steward, 6-0, 8-6, 6-4. In the ladies' sing 's Miss Douglass beat Miss Thempson, Co , C-1.

Old Ell Youngsters Win Freshman Four Oared Race, While Crimson Grads Defeat Blue Veterans in a Haif Mile Tilt

-Programme for the Races Te-day. Now London, Conn., June 27.-The first Harvard-Yale boat races on the Thames, though not scheduled in the annual regatts. programme, were rowed this afternoon There were two events. The first one, between the freshman four oar crews, was won by Yale. Harvard being two seconds astern hen the mile was finished. The time 5 minutes 30 seconds. Harvard took the lead and was looked on as a winner until the youngsters from New Haven spurted 200 yards from the flag and won. The two crews were made up as follows:

Harvard-Stroke, J. Cutler: No. 3, Hanfstaengle No. 2, Butler; bow, Wood; cosswain, Arnold. Yale-Stroke, Livingstone; No. 3, Pomeroy; No. 2, Glenny; bow, Babson; coxswain, Rand.

The second race between graduate oars men of Harvard and Yale was won by the Crimson crew. The distance was only half a mile and was rowed in 2 minutes 25 seconds. The Harvard men appeared to be in much better form than the Elis and received an ovation when they returned to Red Top. These crews were as follows:

Yale-Bogue, stroke; Griswold, No. 7; Hartwell, captain, No. 6; Graves, No. 5; Folsom, No. 4; Judson, No. 8; Cameron, No. 2; Williams, bow; Barkalow, CORSWAID.

There already has assembled in port a large fleet of pleasure craft. About forty have taken positions above the bridge, anchored on the east and west side of the four mile course, and the four revenue cutters, Mohawk, Calumet, Dexter and Gresham, which will attend to the patrolling of the course, also have passed through the draw bridge. Among the steamers that have arrived are the Saranac, Florence, Dlana, Venetia, Invincible, Charmery, Roxana, Victor, Nanchal, Mayita, Ceranto, Florence, Onandaga, Akelo, Arrow, Aguilo, Emrose, Colonia and Thetis. The schooners Hildegarde, Emerald, Constellation, Elmira, Invader, Endémion, Corona, Dervish, Cachalot, Andromeda, Amorita, Seneca, Aloha and Waterwitch are here, and the sloops Altrunain, Kestrel, Marjorie and Wahtawah, and the yawis Vigilant, Normona and Cacique.

The races to-morrow will be rowed as follows:

trying to place any of the coin.

At Harvard's camp the story is current that one man had $165 to bet on the varsity At Harvard's camp the story is current that one man had $165 to bet on the varsity race, and not being able to make a wager at Gales Ferry sent the wad to a friend on the Boston-Stock Exchange in hopes that he would have better luck. All the hotels in the cit; are crowded to-night, and the cots which have done temporary service during regatta weeks for nearly twenty-five years have been dusted once again and are coining money for the proprietors. The hotels at the harbor's mouth, Pequot and Criswold, also report big business.

Fair weather is predicted, with light variaable winds, and it would not be surprising if some of the records made on the course are broken. In the toss up for positions tomorrow, Harvard won for the varsity race and chose the west side. She also won the toss for the four our and chose the east side. Yale won the choice for the freshmenevent and chose the east side.

Final Match for Hempstead Cups Wen by Meadow Brook. Meadew Brook.

Hempstead, L. I., June 27.—Polo of the highest order was seen in the final match for the Hempstead cups, played on the Hempstead Plains this evening between the teams of the Meadow Brook and Rockaway Hunt clubs. The conditions called for teams with a total handicap not exceeding fifteen goals. Faster ponies in the last eight minutes of play resulted in Meadow Brook winning the cups by a score of 7% goals to 6%. SPECTRE YACHTS AT THE FINISH

Indian Harbor Racers Glide Acress the Line in the Darkness.

The regatta committee of the Indian Harbor Club stayed out at the finishing line of the long distance race at Bartletts Reef lightship until midnight on Tuesday night and up to that time all but three of the racers had been accounted for. Those still to be heard from were beaten boats, as they were heard from were beaten boats, as they were far behind the allowances they would have received had they figished. The Yankee-withdrew from the race long before the finish was reached. She was sailing against the Vigilant and Neola and early in the contest got left in the light fluky wind. The Iron-dequoit, a starter against the Eleanora and Kestrel, had not arrived, and the Grampus also was missing

The race was a big success. Early in the contest the Elmina took the lead, and when the breeze freshened she was able to keep at the head. With the others the fight was a not one from start to finish, and the results were in doubt until the end.

As the racers loomed up in the dark at the finish they made pictures rarely seen. The finish they made pictures rarely seen. The water outside New London was illumined only by the lights that are placed around the coast to show mariners their way and by the light vessel. The wind was favorable, so that the racers were able to spread every inch of canvas they can carry, and the spotless white of the canvas made the yachtelook like spectres in the inky blackness. Then they would glide silently on and cross the line. A sharp toot from the committee's steamer would indicate that the time had been taken and in a few minutes the yacht was lost again in the darkness, heading toward the harbor.

the harbor, the first class of schooners the Invader and. Constellation alternated in the lead several times, and at the finish the Constella-tion led by 4 minutes 20 seconds. She got a-allowance of 1 minute 44 seconds and won allowance of t minute 44 seconds and won the race.

In class B the Elmina made a runaway race of it and won from the Corona by 30 minutes 12 seconds. The Emerald was third and the Endymion fourth. The Endymion and Constellation sailed a special race, and the result of this will depend on the measurement of the Endymion. It is thought the Endymion will be found to have won.

The Amorita won from the Seneca handlly. In the 55 foot class of schooners the Dervish, the new yacht owned by Commodore H. A. Mores of the Marbiehead Corinthian Yacht Club, was the winner. She beat the Andromeda 45 minutes 18 seconds and the Andromeda was just 31 seconds ahead of the Cachalot on corrected time. This figuring is made on an approximate rating of the Cachalot. It is probable that the Cachalot won the race for auxiliaries. Taking Emerald's rating at 55, she had to allow the Cachalot 1 hour 40 minutes 4 seconds, which will make her corrected time less than that of the Emerald. Seneca got an approximate allowance of 38 minutes 43 seconds, but this is not enough to make her a winner.

The Neola won easily from the Vigilant. The light winds were in her favoy. In the 45 foot class the Kestrel, sailed by E. Burton Hart, won from the Eleanora and Ironde 40.

Kestrel, Marjorie and Wahtawah, and the yawis Vigilant. Normons and Cacique.

UPHILL VICTORY FOR GRIFF.

AMERICANS BEAT BOSTONS IN A BATTING GAME.

Orth Exercises the Hoodee and Laperte Stars With the Stick-Philadelp Win and Pass the Clevelands, Who Lose -White Sex Shut Out St. Louis.

Back from the interior came Griffith and his New York Americans yesterday and on a field wet from a local shower took a fall out of the tailenders. They are in a position to move up to-day if they win, for the Clevelands were beaten by the Detroits. The Philadelphias took care of Washington and assumed the lead. The Chicagos defeated St. Louis, sending the latter back to sixth place. The results:

New York, 6: Boston, S. Philadelphia, 5; Washington, 0. Detroit, 5; Cleveland, 8. Chicago, 8; St. Louis, 0. STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (A. L.), 6; BOSTON (A. L.), 5.

With both pitchers raided freely by the opposing hitters and to an equal extent, the game at American League Park yesterday was uncertain in its result up to the last putout. The New Yorks won and did so by making an uphill fight. Al Orth shooed away the hoodoo that shadowed him every time he pitched while the New Yorks were away from home, but the outlook was dublous more than once. The New Yorks improved as the game went along and finished stronger than the Bostons. They supported Orth well with men on bases, better than the Bostons did Winter. There were long hard hits and also scratchy hits in the day's grist, but Frank Laporte made four clean hits, batting in two of New York's runs.

in the day's grist, but Frank Laporte made four clean hits, batting in two of New York's runs.

Hoffman retired all three Boston batters in the first inning, ranging widely about the middle mesa. The New Yorks in their half were quelled by a double play. In the second inning Laporte singled, Williams wandered and Delehanty was hit. The nooks were filled, with nobody out, but Hoffman and Kleinow succumbed on strikes to Winter's artful offesings. Orth scratched a hit to Winter, beat the latter in a dash to first base, and Laporte tallied thereby.

From being a power in the first three innings, Orth was changed to a mark in the fourth. The Hubbers "laid up agin" him, to quote the classic slogan of Joe Yeager, hard. Three doubles and a single conspired for three runs. Red Morgan, the Georgetown boy, batted in two of the runs with two men out. It was in the sixth that the New Yorks made the ball sing a few themselves. Laporte singled, Williams doubled to left, and Laporte by good running scored. Hayden lost Delehanty's liner in the sun, and Williams made a bold and successful rush to the plate. Delehanty came in on Freeman's muff of Winter's assist on Hoffman's sacrifice.

The score was tied, the Bostons having tallied once in the sixth on Orth's alow fielding of Hoey's bunt, a passed ball and Morgan's second timely—or untimely—hit. Parent's hit, Stahl's sacrifice and Delehanty's muff were good for a run in the seventh and put the Bostons one ahead. Conroy walked in New York's half and hit the trail for home on Laporte's thumping two bagger to centre.

put the Bostons one ahead. Conroy walked in New York's half and hit the trail for home on Laporte's thumping two bagger to centre. He scored and was treated to a course of fanning and sponging, à la roped arena, by Trainer Mike Martin.

Hoffman's slash to right, Kleinow's sacrifice, Orth's out at first and Keeler's neatly placed single gave the New Yorks the winning run in the eighth. By virtue of two singles and a sacrifice the Bostons had touriste on second and third in the ninth and only one out. Right here, the hill men were steady. On Hoey's grounder to Conroy Parent was obliterated at the plate, and on an attempted double steal Williams and Kleinow squelched Stahl at the plate.

The New Yorks tried the squeeze in the sixth, but it missed fire. Keeler was at bat and Hoffman on third. The pitched ball was, so low that Keeler could not hit, and Hoffman was run down after a frenzied chase. Nevertheless, he would have scored if he had not slipped on the wet ground. He was an elusive quarry for a while. Williams made a hair raising one handed stop of a single off Parent's bat. The score:
